Local institution, Wingates Band, having climbed into the Top 30 in the world of brass bands, and with a proud and rich 140-year plus heritage of concerts, competitions, recordings and bringing through new musical talent, announced recently that they were on the brink of closure... community and supporters are rallying to help them through this difficult patch – for the sake of music excellence and the town's heritage.

See Wingates Band in concert at St. Bart's on Saturday, 21st October (7:30pm).

'Best of British | Last Night of the Proms Finale'

Tickets £8 (2 for £15) – Under 16 Free.

Established in 2011, Westhoughton Community Network brings together community groups, organisations and charities to share information, promote and work together to serve the community of Westhoughton.

If you want to know what's going on or find out about local groups, pursue an interest or take steps to give something back as a volunteer, the WCN website is a good place to start.
